

Goals of Kansas Anthropological Association

- To scientifically study cultures and peoples of the past.
- To expand the knowledge of the state's archeological heritage by public participation.
- To preserve and protect the state's archeological heritage.
- To publish and distribute information gathered.
- To share the enjoyment of archeological/anthropological investigations with others.