

Acknowledgments

The authors who contributed to the original guide packet of 1976 and revised the handbooks of 1980 and 1987 should be acknowledged. If not for their dedication to all things KAA, the members would be unorganized and lost in a sea of archeological discoveries.

First and foremost, Thomas A. Witty, Jr., State Archeologist of Kansas from 1960-1994 deserves thanks. Others who merit gratitude include Randall M. Thies, retired KSHS archeologist; Diane Good, former KSHS laboratory archeologist; Martin Stein, retired SHPO archeologist; Dianna Rogers and Verna Detrich, long-time KAA state officers.

Everything changes with time. Now thanks are due to those who contributed to this latest version of the KAA Handbook. Those professionals include Dr. Robert J. Hoard, State Archeologist; Virginia A. Wulfkuhle, KSHS public archeologist and KAA journal editor; Dr. Tim Weston, SHPO archeologist; Chris Garst, KSHS laboratory archeologist; and Marsha King and Tod Bevitt, contract archeologists and longtime KAA members. KAA current and past officers and members who contributed include Nancy Arendt, Mary Conrad, Al Petz, Kent Sallee, Baron Shively, Vita Tucker, and Rose Marie Wallen.
